

Requiring morse code to "qualify" for an amateur radio license is about the same as requiring a person to pass an advanced mechanical aptitude test in order to receive a drivers license.

It's time remove the morse code requirement, as the european countries have.

Thank you, Brian Litzenberger, n0pmz